

Air-oil units

Air-oil units for the bearings lubrication

These units are used for the minimal air-oil lubrication of the bearings for the high speed rotations.

They are equipped of pressure control and micrometric regulation of the oil quantity on every single exit, security alarm for insufficient air pressure in entry and in exit as well on every single line, oil level indicator.

Available in the versions from 2 to 6 lubrication points and alimentation 24 V or 220 V.

-

